IQAC CELL

FUNCTIONS:

Advancing Quality Culture:

1. Advancing a quality culture across the organization is paramount for sustained success.
2. Encouraging partners to take responsibility for drives and cycles is crucial for fostering collaboration, accountability, and efficiency.

Creating and Applying Quality Benchmarks:

1. Establishing and maintaining quality benchmarks for various intellectual and authoritative exercises is essential for ensuring consistency, excellence, and continuous improvement.
2. Implementing quality benchmarks across various divisions and capabilities requires a coordinated effort and commitment from all stakeholders.

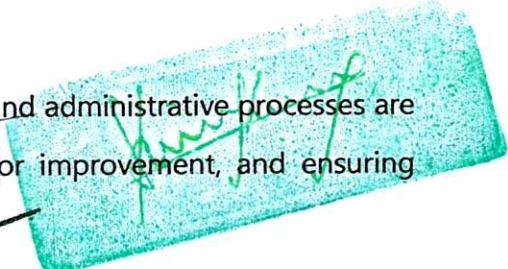

Working with the Formation of a Student Driven Climate:

1. Creating a student-driven environment conducive to holistic development requires a multifaceted approach that prioritizes students' needs, interests, and growth.
2. Advancing student feedback systems and utilizing them for continuous improvement is essential for creating a student-centered learning environment that meets the evolving needs of students.

Guaranteeing Constant Improvement:

1. Continuous monitoring and assessment of academic and administrative processes are essential for maintaining quality, identifying areas for improvement, and ensuring organizational effectiveness.

IQAC

ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Role of coordinator:

1. The role of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) coordinator is indeed crucial in spearheading the institution's strategic plan for quality improvement and ensuring alignment with the academic community's objectives.
2. The coordinator manages quality assurance activities within the institution, and can help ensure that the institution maintains high standards of quality, compliance, and excellence, regulatory requirements in all its endeavours.
3. By analyzing academic performance, student feedback, and quality indicators to create comprehensive reports for stakeholders, the IQAC coordinator will provide valuable insights and recommendations to support ongoing improvement efforts and ensure that the institution remains focused on its mission of delivering high-quality education and services.
4. Organizing workshops and training sessions for faculty and staff is an essential responsibility of the IQAC coordinator to foster a culture of quality consciousness and enhance awareness and skills related to quality assurance and improvement processes.
5. Leading continuous improvement initiatives as the IQAC coordinator involves collaborating with various departments, gathering feedback, and implementing best practices to ensure continuous and progressive quality enhancement.

Roles & Responsibilities of Members:

1. Active participation of members in IQAC meetings, workshops, and activities is crucial for the effective functioning of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) and for driving quality enhancement initiatives.
2. As members of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), collecting, analyzing, and interpreting data on academic performance, student feedback, and administrative processes is a key responsibility.
3. As members of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), contributing to the development, review, and improvement of quality assurance policies and procedures is a critical responsibility.
4. Collaborating closely with various departments and stakeholders is crucial for IQAC members to enhance quality through effective communication, sharing best practices, and aligning departmental objectives with IQAC's overall goals.
5. Facilitating quality workshops and training sessions is an excellent way for IQAC members to foster a culture of quality consciousness among faculty, staff, and students, ultimately promoting continuous improvement.
